COMES NOW Bristol-Myers Squibb P.R., Inc. See Dkt. No. 20866.

<sup>1</sup> The Debtors in these Title III Cases, along with each Debtor’s respective Title III case number and the last four (4) digits of each Debtor’s federal tax identification number, as applicable, are the (i) Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 3283-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3481); (ii) Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“COFINA”) (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 3284-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 8474); (iii) Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority (“HTA”) (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 3567-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3808); (iv) Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“ERS”) (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 3566-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 9686); (v) Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (“PREPA”) (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 4780-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3747); and (vi) Puerto Rico Public Buildings Authority (“PBA”) (Bankruptcy Case No. 19-BK-5233-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3801). (Title III case numbers are listed as Bankruptcy Case numbers due to software limitations.)

Procedures (the “Motion”)<sup>2</sup> (Dkt. No. 20560) requesting the implementation of several procedures to govern the Avoidance Actions (the “Proposed Procedures”).

2. On May 3, 2022, BMS filed Bristol-Myers Squibb P.R., Inc.’s Partial Joinder to Limited Objection and Reservation of Rights to Omnibus Motion by the Avoidance Actions Trustee to Establish Litigation Case Management Procedures (Dkt. No. 20665) (the “Joinder to Limited Objection”). See Dkt. No. 20669.

3. A hearing was held on May 18, 2022 (the “Hearing”) to consider arguments on the Proposed Procedures in the Motion and the objections filed by different parties, including BMS’ Joinder to Limited Objection. At the conclusion of the hearing, Magistrate Judge Dein indicated that she will issue a notice with a redlined version of a revised proposed procedures order for counsel’s review and comments. See Dkt. No. 20868.

4. Later on May 18, 2022, Magistrate Judge Dein entered the Notice on Revised Procedures, which included as an exhibit “a revised version of the Avoidance Action Procedures” (the “Proposed Revised Procedures”). See Dkt. No. 20866 at pp. 1-2.

5. BMS objects to the mandatory mediation provisions in the Proposed Revised Procedures for the reasons asserted in the Joinder to the Limited Objection and the reasons discussed at the Hearing. As argued by the undersigned at the Hearing, under the First Circuit decision of In re Atl. Pipe Corp., 304 F.3d 135 (1st Cir. 2002), any mandatory mediation order that does not “set reasonable limits on the duration of the mediation and on the mediator’s fees” (Id. at 147-148) (emphasis added) is doomed to fail because the “order must be crafted in a manner that preserves procedural fairness and shields objecting parties from undue burdens.” Id. at 145.

<sup>2</sup> Capitalized terms used herein but not defined shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Motion.

6. The Proposed Revised Procedures' mandatory mediation framework does not contain the safeguards required by the First Circuit, including (i) a limitation on the duration of mediation and (ii) a limitation on the mediator's fees. Accordingly, the Proposed Revised Procedures should be modified to include the foregoing protections in compliance with Atl. Pipe.

7. In the alternative, and without waiving BMS' position concerning the procedural safeguards Atl. Pipe requires, BMS proposes that part V(ii) of the Proposed Revised Procedures be adjusted to allow parties in the Avoidance Actions to voluntarily opt-out from mediation by filing a notice to the Court before the initial mediation session is set to begin, and that such party will be automatically exempted from mediation upon the filing of the notice without the need of any Court order or action. Specifically, BMS suggests the following language for part V(ii) of the Proposed Revised Procedures:

“Parties who wish to be exempted from mediation will file a notice with the Court in their Applicable Avoidance Action before commencement of their initial mediation session. Upon filing of the notice, the party will be automatically exempted from mediation without the need of any Court order or further action by the Court.”

8. BMS reserves all rights and remedies with respect to the Motion, the Notice on Revised Procedures, and the Proposed Revised Procedures.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons explained above, BMS respectfully requests this Court to (i) modify the mediation provisions in the Proposed Revised Procedures to set reasonable limits on the duration of the mediation and on the mediator's fees in compliance with the First Circuit's decision in Atl. Pipe, 304 F.3d at 147-148; or (ii), in the alternative, modify part V(ii) of the Proposed Revised Procedures to allow parties in the Avoidance Actions to voluntarily opt-out from mediation by filing a notice with the Court before the initial mediation session is set to begin, and that such party will be automatically exempted from mediation upon the filing of the notice without the need of any Court order or action.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 20th day of May, 2022.
